

MORE FESTIVAL FUN AT TRENTFEST 2023

Clockwise from top: Flower-powered festivalgoers got stuck into the fancy dress; more than 1,000 campers joined the fun; it was all about peace, love and Trentfest

Trent Valley District Association (DA)'s annual birthday meet, Trentfest, was full of fun with more than 1,000 campers of all ages in attendance for the celebrations at Thoresby Hall in Nottinghamshire. With the sun shining, Trentfest opened on the Thursday with live music starting in the evening. Over the three days, campers could enjoy 14 acts of live entertainment with music to suit all tastes. The meet also saw a variety of stalls on site offering flags, hair braiding and caravan accessories, plus a choice of food vendors. Campers got into the festival spirit by dressing up, with costumes of minions, Where's Wally and many more. The meet also had a dedicated Camping Club Youth area filled up with Youth from the Region's different DAs who could meet up with old friends and make new ones. PRO Andrea Flint said: "Over the weekend, the Trentfest team of volunteers welcomed 381 units on site. This is a huge task, and we would like to thank all our volunteers who helped over the working party weekend and at the main event. We would also like to thank our event sponsors, Robinsons Caravans and GXO Logistics. It was a busy weekend with plenty of dancing and laughter." Trentfest 2024 will take place from 14-16 June at Thoresby Events Field. Find out more at tvda.co.uk
